We End an Era . . .

As our era in a new school ends, we enter an era of growth and development. The struggle to establish Finney-town High School as an outstanding center of education extends into a phase in which the high standards and tradition set during our early years must be intensified. We begin this step this year. The fresh spirit and unity arising from our new administratio., our sports teams, and from our enthusiastic student body, pulsate continually throughout the entire school. To meet the challenge of maintaining our fine reputation, the school strives to create an atmosphere in which this throbbing spirit will increase.

Seniors, as they crowd a final busy year of high school with studying and extra-curricular activities, end their era as the leaders and the pace-setters of F.H.S. They combined their varied talents, and now leave a strong base upon which others may build.

Omega . . . Begin Again

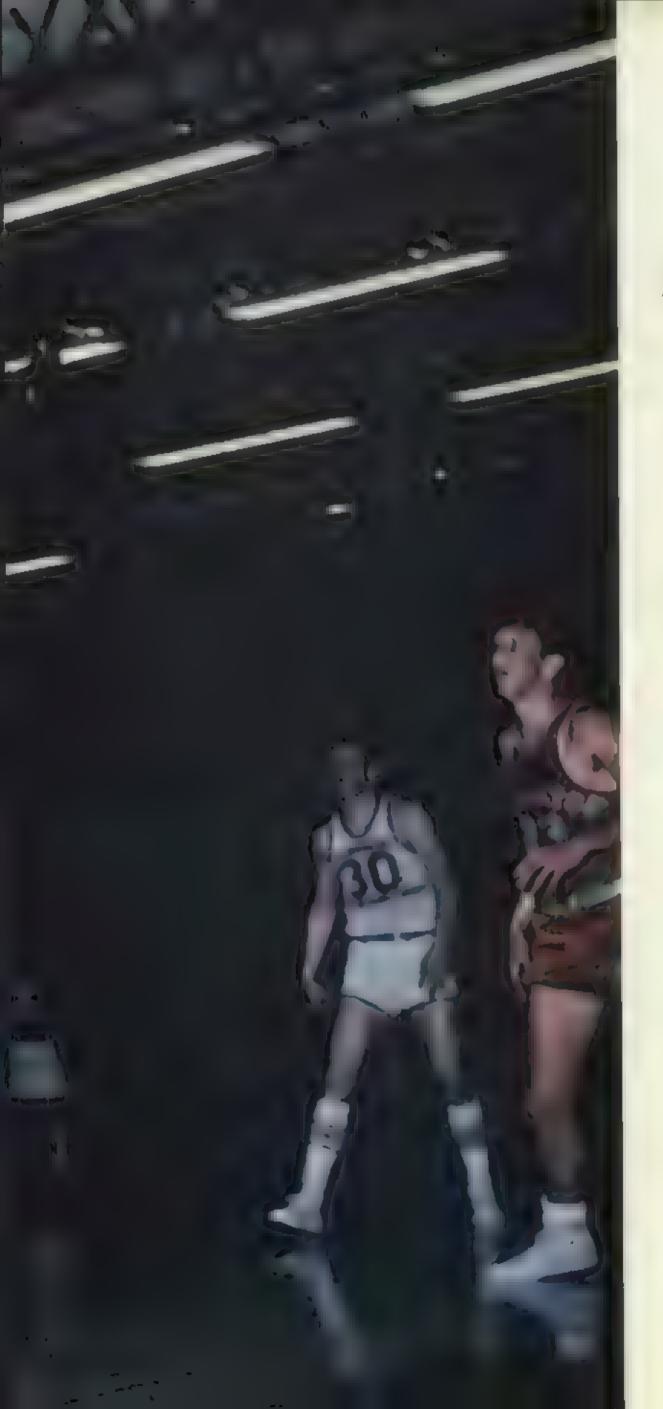

The cycle of Alpha and Omega is never ending. As one Alpha fades into an Omega, we begin again. Before an Omega ceases, one is in a world of different experiences, ideas, and spirit

As students graduate from Finney-town, they depart as better people, and leave Finneytown a stronger school system. As they enter the completely new experience of college, business, or military service, under-classmen begin and end the Alphas and Omegas of the halls and class-rooms of Finneytown. Finneytown has kindled ambitions for the future One leaves hoping to fulfill them

Finneytown's
New Spirit
and Vitality
in Action

A new beginning arouses new feelings, especially that of new spirit, in the student body. Spirit is intangible; it can only be described in abstract terms. The hoarse cheering of an excited crowd at a crucial football or basketball game, or the pride gained from achieving one's best grades is SPIRIT

A New Start with . . .

New Spirit . . .

Spirit lives within the heart and mind of each student, and passes from one to the other until it effervesces through the entire school

The vitality of newness sweeps over F H.S.: new faces within the student body, a new faculty offering new challenges, and a new administration establishing new policies. A new Senior class leads the way in sports, activities and unity

Juniors busily plan for the Prom. The Sophomores' variety show implants itself as a tradition Freshmen plunge directly into the school spirit and begin fund-raising activities. Our football team increases its winning power, and our basketball team proves itself champion for the second consecutive time. Academically and athletically, our school reaches a new peak in its potential

and New Experiences

Dedication

Finneytown's fame throughout the Cincinnati area and the state of Ohio is due, in great part, to the outstanding coaching talent of Earl "Stu" Miller

He has guided the Finneytown Wildcat basketball team through consecutive league championships and tournament play in his second and third years as Varsity roach

His fine leadership, frankness, and exemplary sportsmanship have gained him the respect and admiration of both the school and community

His term love him, not only because he instills in them a desire to play their best, but primarily because of his honesty

In the classroom his great sense of humor is ever-present, providing an enjoyable atmosphere for learning. As a phys-ed, instructor, he stresses physical fitness; a basis for building strong youth

Coach Miller has given much of himself for his team, his students, and the school. Inspiring others to do the same, he is instrumental in contributing to Finneytown's excellent reputation

Counselors

Since a school is such a complex organization, it requires the services of many individuals of varied talents. The smooth operation of FHS is a credit to the persons pictured on these pages. In his first year at Finneytown, Mr. Strunk won the confidence and cooperation of the parents, students, and faculty. As Mr Strunk's secretary, Mrs. Phillips prepares the morning bulletins, meets visitors, and answers countless phone calls and questions. Mr. Moore, as assistant principal, is responsible for the purchase of textbooks, the discipline of students, and the issuing of locks and lockers. His secretary, Mrs. Danenhauer, is also school treasurer Mrs. Ruley and Mr. Frey are the two full-time counselors; Mrs. Ruley works with seniors and Mr. Frey primarily with eighth graders. Mrs. Drake does the clerical work and makes appointments for the counselors

In Memoriam

Mr. Alfred Lloyd Kress, teacher of mathematics and science, departed this life on September 15, 1965. His illness was brief and his death most sudden. True to the principles of his profession, he had great affection for all youth, studied many years at many outstanding institutions to prepare himself most diligently and effectively, and put forth great effort that the students of his classes might be successful in their studies. Death came at the age of fifty-six years.

His college preparation for teaching began with the granting of the A.B. degree to him by the University of Cincinnati in 1933. He was elected to Phi Beta Kappa in 1933. He continued his studies and in 1943 received his M. A. from Columbia University.

A varied and dedicated teaching career began in the schools of Northern Kentucky. In 1954 he transferred his teaching career to Ohio when he began teaching at Wyoming. He taught also at Terrace Park and in September, 1957, joined the staff of the Finneytown Schools where he taught in the Junior High School grades until the time of his death

Perhaps the most significant tribute that could be given him is to quote the statement made on his application for a position on the Finneytown staff when he wrote that one of his leading hobbies and interests was "helping others (including teaching)."

His friendly manner to all and his affection for youth and education will be greatly missed in the years ahead

Student Council functions to maintain and to increase the understanding between the administration and the student body. The Council is the governing body for all student organizations, and regulates the social functions of the school. Other duties include selling ice cream in the cafeteria, chartering buses for away sports activities, and planning and assisting with assemblies. Student Council is active in Area Student Council and this year sponsored Careers Night to aid students with their choice of future occupations, and co-sponsored International Day with the American Field Service

American Field Service

WALK TOGETHER TALK TOGETHER
O YE PEOPLES OF THE EARTH
THEN AND ONLY THEN SHALL YE HAVE PLACE"

The American Field Service promotes world understanding through a student exchange program. Working with the adult community chapter, the Finneytown High School chapter raised funds for a student through bake sales, A.F.S. Penny Day, a sock-hop, and adult bridge parties. International Day, sponsored in conjunction with Student Council was the most important event of the year. Foreign students from neighboring areas visited Finneytown and attended classes with their individual hosts for one day. This year two students from Finneytown, Susan Millier and Mike Johnstone, lived in Germany and Switzerland, respectively, for a year as A.F.S. ers.

Célio Guercio became a member of the Class of 1966 early in the year From Juiz de Fora, Brazil, Cého immediately adjusted to Finneytown routine. He actively participated in A.F.S., Hi-Y, French Club, and Student Council despite a heavy schedule of chemistry, French, Contemporary Civilization, and English, and his duties as an A.F.S.'er Célio. Finneytown's fourth exchange student, resided with the John Lindhjem family. His friendly, cheerful manner and his wit will be greatly missed. Célio was the best representative of good will and understanding that Brazil could have sent to Finneytown.

Susan Miller writes of her experience as an exchange stu-

Unique" is a word you could use to describe my experience as an exchange student. "Educational", "maturing" and "interesting" are also good. But one word I would choose is "worthwhile" because it took lots and lots of time thinking and planning to initiate and to continue AFS. This time, so precious in today's world, is worth every bit of its cost. What I've learned about Germany in this year is worth the year alone. But I also have learned what it means to be an American and what America has done for me. I never knew what true national pride was until I came to Germany. Not that people were always insulting the U.S., but I got more than enough teasing. I speak funny English, everything in America is super-big, everybody in America is rich and drives a monsier car etc.

Laughingly defending your country and her customs is sometimes hard, especially when you always have to remember "international relations." One question I'll never forget is "How do you like Germany?" And then "But it's nicer than America" The Germans have a habit of answering their own questions

But the advantages of being an A.F.S.'er are far greater than the disadvantages. Meeting new people, talking to them in their language, (which is the best way to get to know them), and then saying good-bye again, maybe forever, are all part of an A.F.S.'er's life and I wouldn't have missed it for the world."

Mike Johnstone writes of his experience an an A.F.S. student in Bern, Switzerland

What is a Senior year? It is the final year of academic and social development in preparation for college or for a job, and for our place in society. The courses taken are difficult, requiring a good deal of study, but time is always found for the football and basketball games, and attendance at social functions is usually not lacking

My Senior year was certainly special. There were no foot-ball and basketball games and socially, a few private parties had to suffice. My schedule was full, considering I was taking twelve subjects—naturally a tremendous amount of time was spent studying. The strict traditional rules of our school were enforced as they have been for more than one hundred years. Amusement was reserved for vacations, but then it was "great"; skiing in the Alps and traveling through Switzerland were novel as well as fun

With the acquisition of a new language, and the customs and culture of another land, I received a new view point of America, myself and of life. I realized that the modern, busy American is not exactly welcomed by everyone. Constant defense of American foreign policies and undertakings necessitates a closer look and analysis of America and of all it entails.

Observation of Swiss ideas and practices has given me new beliefs and has strengthened old ones. Through my experience I have certainly profited and have acquired ideas that will help me throughout life. I only hope everyone in the Class of '66 has had as successful a year as I

Several new ideas were incorporated into the 1966 Finis. For the first time in the school's history, a name was given to the annual; the students voted for their choice when they bought their books. This edition is also the first "complete" yearbook in that it contains a pictorial review of the whole year—from the first day of school through graduation.

The size of the book has been increased to a college size yearbook. The problems of picture-taking planning, selling subscriptions and meeting the budget occupied the time of the staff of fifteen, under the direction of Donn Delson and Sue Huelsebusch. Even before this book had gone to press, Juniors were planning for 1967

Under the direction of Mr. William Swiftzel, with the assistance of Mr. Tad Lasonczyk, the Concert Band performed during the football season on the field, and for many extra functions such as U.C. Band Day and the Carthage Fair. With a large influx of members, the Band successfully played in several concerts during the year. Besides the traditional activities, many of the members participated in a pep band which added to the spirit at the basketball games. Others played in the orchestra for the annual musical production, "The Music Man," and entered district and state contests. A banquet at which outstanding members received awards for their fine work ended the year

Class of '66 Sponsors Homecoming

With tongue in theek Dona Leiser, Sevier Class President, donies Queen Salv. Whetse

On October 29, 1965 the Finneytown Wildcats hosted their cousins, the Harrison Wildcats in the Fourth Annual Homecoming game sponsored by the Class of '66. Pre-game activities included a parade which terminated at the high school in a mass pep rally and bonfire. The coronations of Queen Sally Whetsel and the selection of the Junior float as the most outstanding, highlighted the halftime ceremonies. The eventful evening closed with the dance in honor of our victorious Wildcats, alumni, and Sally Whetsel and her court Sally Hilmer, Leanne Brown, Mary Gardiner, Linda Lawson, and Merlene Schain

The traditional G.A.A. Girls' Week honors the girls of F.H.A. in grades seven through twelve. The activities of the week included an assembly on fashion Dress-Up Day, Teacher-Appreciation Day, the Mother-Daughter banquet, and a picnic. A semi-formal turn-about dance, 'Over the Rainbow', culminated a busy week of fun and enjoyment

Football

The 1966 season for the Cats was not as successful as the '65 season, for they won only two games while losing eight. Coach Williams, assisted by Coaches Hartker, Dudgeon and Bean had high hopes for their boys, but after an encouraging start, the team was held scoreless in five of the remaining games. A total of 100 points was scored, compared to the previous year's total of 150

The good attendance at all games showed that the students still supported their team, win or lose. Optimism never dies, and one could always hear someone saying, "Wait 'til next year!"

Our Wildcats made 1966 a very good year for basketball. Challenged by those who thought they could not repeat last year's fine performance, F-Troop, under the expert guidance of Coach Miller compiled a 19—2 record for the season

After losing their first game to LaSalle by one point, our Wildcats were not defeated again until Middletown overcame them by an 81—69 score in the semi-finals of the Oxford District Tournament

The Wildcats, the Best in the West, won the championship of the Western Division of the Hamilton County League with a record of 11—0 A win which particularly pleased the team and the fans was the Cats first defeat of the Oak Hills Highlanders

Mark Werner, the team's most valuable player, scored 44 points in the game against Norwood, setting a record for a Finneytown player

Inter-class as well as interscholastic competition keeps the girls of G.A.A. busy throughout the whole school year. Archery, softball, tennis, hockey, volleyball, basketball and horseback riding provide a variety of activity for the many girls involved. Miss Feldkamp, aided by her board and other faculty members, instructs and organizes the many sports. Particularly successful this year was the softball team, coached by Mi Vockell

Junior High G.A A. was formed this year to stimulate the interest of the younger girls. It became the responsibility of the older members to help Mrs. Ellwein in working with them

The enthusiasm shown by the girls, and the excellent leadership given by Miss Feldkamp guarantee more victories for the teams and a greater enrollment in the future

Cries against Senioritis have echoed in the ears of the members of the Class of '66, since we first united as Sophomores. The voice of this opposition belongs to the man, who, in our opinion, is the finest and most dedicated class advisor ever Mr. David Bean. Encouraging both individual academic and athletic excellence, he has promoted not only class, but also school pride and spirit

Mr. Bean's inspiring leadership has greatly contributed to our many accomplishments. Car washes, our first major class activity as Sophomores, were enlivened by scorching water and sponge fights in which Mr. Bean was usually the prime target. The following year four class members were first-string players on the winning Wildcat varsity basketball team. Working diligently, we raised funds for our very successful prom, Tahitian Holiday, held at the Netherland Hilton Pavillon Caprice.

As Seniors, the Class of '66 sponsored both the Homecoming Festivities and the Christmas Prom The five starting members of our championship F-Troopers were Seniors and brought great acclaim to themselves and to the school. After a vear of excitement and anticipation, the Class of '66 graduated in the Fifth Annual Commencement ceremony at Finneytown High School

Looking back on this wonderful chapter in our lives, we will always remember the man who boldly lead us through the few trying as well as the rewarding times. Neither will we forget his wife, who generously gave of her time, her help, and her husband

Fo the old philospher and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. David Bean, we dedicate our Senior Section in thanks for three marvelous years

The 1966 Junior-Senior Prom

Dancing to the music of Denny Hegin and his orchestra, these couples enjoy an evening in

The Junior-Senior Prom of 1966, sponsored by the Class of 1967, was held at the Sheraton-Gibson Hotel on May 27 Denny Heglin and his orchestra provided the music for a wonderful evening in Shangri-La, the theme of the Prom. This year a King was honored as well as a Queen. Miss Leanne Brown and Mr. Cého Guercio reigned over the festivities Their court included Diane Broberg, Beth Garrison, Kathy Holmes, Linda Lawson, John Carsmen, Steve King, Ron Magnan, and Terry Wilburn. A buffet supper and an after-the-Prom bowling party completed a perfect night

Led by four energetic young ladies and the skillful guidance of Mr. Wagner, class advisor, the Junior Class worked industriously planning and raising funds for the 1966 Prom entitled "Shangri-La". A Shindig with A-Go-Go girls, a St. Patrick's Prance, a Junior High dance, and bake sales were the chief fund-raising projects A class party in the spring, organized by the officers and a ten member executive board, climaxed a year of hard-work and fun Jam Agee

The Class of '68 entered its second year of operation with "Age'N Gauge'N", a variety show produced and directed by class members and with the handling of a book-store as a service to the students. Advised by Mr. Connelly and Mr. Alexander, the Sophomores planned the "Dogpatch Drag" which proved to be one of the most successful dances of the year. Other fund raising projects included bake sales, car washes, and paper drives For relaxation from these activities, they took advantage of a heavy snow and held a sledding and skating party

Organized early in the fall, the Freshmen Class plunged immediately into high school life. With the aid of Miss Collins, class advisor, they initiated the sale of horns and a Valentine's Day Sock Hop honoring the Seniors. The enthusiasm and leadership shown during this first year has provided the class with a firm foundation for its high school future

Student Council

The Junior High Student Council, advised by Mr Craig, meets twice a month. Activities this year included a fund raising drive for The Needlest Kids of All and a dance for their fellow students. Student Council provides an opportunity for Junior High students to actively participate in student government and to gain experience as future leaders

Band

The Junior High Band rehearses three days a week under the direction of Mr William Swartzel. The seventh and eighth graders who form this group perform at several concerts, assemblies and football games during the year. In solo, ensemble, and band contests, they competed with Junior High students from surrounding areas. The Hamilton County Junior High Music Festival climaxed the end of the year. Eighth graders attend band camp during the summer in preparation for entrance into the Senior Band.

IN APPRECIATION

We cannot let out 1966 finis go to press without thanking, in some public manner, the many persons who have helped us. Without the cooperation shown by the administration, the faculty, and the student body, we would not have been able to solve the many problems which arose in publishing an entirely new kind of yearbook for F.H.S. The financial support of our advertisers and patrons made it possible for us to increase the size of the book and to include color pages.

We would especially like to thank the Rob Paris Studio. Their patience, time and advice far exceeded the monetary gain they received from the Senior portraits.

To us, though, the person really responsible for this book is you, the subscriber. If you had not been willing to order this book last September, sight unseen, there would have been no pictorial record of the past year.

In short, we hope it has been worth waiting for.

Twents eight students and advisors seave on European Lour. Pieture coursess fired Straub the Commonte Enquires.
